

Document Flow Manager (DFM)

Objective

To facilitate collaborative commerce by automating document flow between trading partners.

The value of the SYSPRO Document Flow Manager

- Automatic processing of documents as they arrive electronically – no down-time
- Reduce lead-time between trading partners
- No duplication of effort
- Avoids recapturing errors
- Open architecture allows easy linking/integration to other applications
- Receive and transmit transactions using e-mail and Microsoft Exchange
- Automated e-mail customer service functionality

Matching the SYSPRO Document Flow Manager to Your Business

- Provides an automated global business-to-business and business-to-consumer gateway
- Automate any SYSPRO business object
- Objects protect ERP system by enforcing business logic
- Translate XML documents using an XSLT translator
- XML documents copied to failed or processed folders with email notification to originator
- Jobs continue to send messages even when main system is down
- Transform documents from one format to another using the DFM or product such as BizTalk
- Transactions tracked and processed through Microsoft Messaging Services

